Filip Stoyanov, military commander of Vidin, was arrested in late November 1951 and is being held in prison. Zano Mulkov, secretary of the Kula District Committee of the Communist Party, was arrested in November 1951 on charges of faulty organization in the TKZS (Trudovo-Kooperativno Zemedelsko Stopanstvo; Cooperative Labor Farms), but reappeared in Kula in mid-December 1951 as head of the MTS (Mechanical Tractor Station). It is believed that he was arrested because the TKZS members at Kula destroyed the inventories of their cooperative in the hope of obtaining more produce for themselves. Members of cooperatives in Vidin, Plovdiv, Stara Zagora, and Shumen also destroyed their inventories. 3. Forty-three Communist workers in the Georgi Dimitrov factory in Sofia were discharged in November for protesting against low salaries and poor working conditions. A certain Koslov and a certain Markov, engineers recently arrived from Moscow, are now directing the Savbalstroi Factory in Sofia at respective salaries of 300,000 and 120,000 leva a month. A certain Tinterov, a Bulgarian engineer, receives a salary of 20,000 leva a month; Tinterov is one of the few remaining Bulgarian directors of the factory. A special food store located on Stara Planina Street is reserved for Soviets working in the factory. 5. The Stalin thermoelectric center is directed by Soviet engineer Arseneiko and the Soviet electrical engineer Sosina who receive salaries of 300,000 leva and 210,000 leve a month respectively. The four principal Bulgarian engineers working on the project are Stoyan Karagiov, Nikola Benderev, Yordan Papanastov, and Stefan Boychev, who each receive 20,000 leva a month as salary. ## CONTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY CONTRAL TABLE - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY -2 25X1 6. The Soviets have appropriated 34,000,000 leva to translate plans and change nomenclature from Bulgarian to Russian in electrical centers in Bulgaria. When Alexander Khancof, a Bulgarian engineer at the electrical center Montas, protested against the expenditure, he was relieved of his position and sent to work in a Russian province in spite of the fact that he is a long-time Communist. 25X1 25X1 25X1 Comment: Possibly either the Stalin power station in Dimitrovgrad or the Stalin dam under construction near Sofia
